The Most Holy BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST

First Reading

Gen 14:18-20

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm

You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading

1 Cor 11:23-26

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

Gospel Acclamation (When there is a musician the Halle, Halle will be sung)

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Lk 9:11-17

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down.

Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Communion Antiphon:

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

"When you have received Him, stir up your heart to do Him homage;
speak to Him about your spiritual life,
gazing upon Him in your soul where He is present for your happiness;
welcome Him as warmly as possible, and behave outwardly in such a way that your actions may give proof to all of His Presence."
(St. Francis de Sales)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Wadandi people of the Noongar nation as the traditional custodians of this land on which we gather. We recognise their continuing onnection to the land and waters, and thank them for protecting this coastline and its ecosystems since time immemorial. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and extend that respect to all First Nations people who might be present today.

JUNE INTENTION

Families

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives

LECTORS

Could the Lectors at each weekend Mass, please meet in the Sacristy 10 minutes prior to Mass beginning.

The wearing of masks inside the Church is no longer mandatory. It is now your choice.

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

The Feast was first celebrated in the 13th century. The feast began locally, and the Pope of the time made it available for the whole Church. It encouraged reverence in church where the consecrated host was preserved in a prominent place for worship and for ceremonies like Benediction where it was the focus of attention. It also became a proud statement of Catholic identity. Over the past century, and particularly in the Second Vatican Council, the Church has emphasised more strongly the presence of Christ within the community, which Paul called the Body of Christ. In this vision all Catholics are active as well as receptive in the celebration of the Eucharist. It has also given strong weight to Christ's action in the Eucharist. Christ is present, not simply in the consecrated bread and wine, but as the one who forgives, speaks, feeds, gathers together and makes present his offering on the Cross. In this fuller understanding of the Eucharist Christ is present in the bread and wine because he is active in the Church. In the Eucharist he calls us to prayer and reverence. He also calls us to follow his way in feeding the poor and giving spirit to the excluded and in taking up our own cross. The Feast of Corpus Christi is a feast of its time. It is also a Feast for every time that encourages us to pray, to wonder at Christ's continuing gift to us through his presence and his continuing activity, and to follow him in giving ourselves to those in need. (Australian Catholics)

REFUGEE WEEK 19-25 JUNE: A CALL TO PRAYER

Catholics across Australia are being invited to participate in a special Refugee Week prayer service that will be streamed online on the evening of Monday, June 20 at 6.00pm AEST. Register to join the online prayer service on Zoom: <https://bit.ly/RefugeeWeek2022Prayers>.

Fr Andrew Hamilton (Australian Catholics) writes: "Our own nation must recognise refugees as human beings like ourselves, as brothers and sisters, as people who have much to offer to our society. For that to happen attitudes that are sick need to be healed. In Australia the soil in which a better response to refugees will grow needs careful tending. Plants do not grow if sown in stone. We need to hoe and fertilise the ground through compassion and conversation. We can do that by coming to know refugees and sharing their life stories with our friends, by questioning the sad and politically motivated arguments for locking them up and removing from them access to the rule of law. We can write to our politicians to demand a better policy and support candidates who advocate for refugees. The Catholic Alliance for People Seeking Asylum (CAPSA) brings together people who want to make a difference to Australian policy. If we do these things we can be part of the healing for refugees and for our society. We can build hope that the hearts and minds of our people will change and that eventually the world will move to prevent the making of refugees and to care for people who need protection. Like all world celebrations International Refugee Week begins at home."

Another initiative from the Refugee Council is an ebook "Share a Meal, Share a Story Cookbook" which can be downloaded from https://action.refugeecouncil.org.au/story_cookbook. (There is a minimum donation of $20 which after associated costs goes to supporting the advocacy of the Refugee Council of Australia. They work to bring about the fairer treatment of refugees and people seeking asylum in Australia and around the world.) Farah Celjo, Managing Editor of SBS Food Online writes: These are not just meals; they are memories of freedom and loss, stories of joy and journey, of belonging and of longing. And most importantly of welcoming. This is where we all come together and embrace one other. Food, and stories, are meant to be shared and we welcome you to this table. We hope that you enjoy sharing these recipes with your friends and families as much as each contributor has enjoyed sharing them with you. Happy cooking and happy feasting!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

The St. Vincent de Paul Society has launched its Annual Winter Appeal, urging the community to support women and children escaping family and domestic violence. The St. Vincent de Paul Society is Western Australia's largest provider of emergency assistance and support. Every year, they assist more than 55,000 West Australians by providing emergency relief such as food, furniture and clothing, as well as help with bills and rent. SVdP also run a range of specialised services and programs in the areas of housing and homelessness, mental health, migrants and refugees, youth services and financial counselling. To donate and help make a positive difference in these people's lives, donation envelopes can be found in the foyer of the church. Our local SVdP Welfare number for assistance is 9754 7048 (or you can talk to Maria Parkinson).

CLEANING ROSTER

The new cleaning roster for St Joseph's has been finalised and emailed. There are a few copies in each church for those without an email address. We thank you for this all important ministry. You may often fly under the radar, but the work you do is always appreciated.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL REQUEST

The PPC are asking for all the groups and committees send through a report (to include what your group does, who are the members and a contact person and their number) which can be published in the bulletin over the coming months. Send to Tim Murphy (timpaulamurphy@gmail.com)

FRAMEWORK FOR MOTIONS

Has just been released and will form the basis for members of the Plenary Council to reflect, discuss and put forward any amendments before they gather in Sydney for the Second Assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of the Church in Australia. Deborah Robertson is asking anyone interested in being part of a discussion group prior to this meeting to contact her on Bunbury.director@catholicmission.org.au or by phoning 0419939864. Framework For Motions can be downloaded on <https://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/>

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED AUSTRALIA

ACN is the Pontifical Foundation dedicated to supporting the suffering and persecuted Church. Our brothers and sisters in Lebanon are suffering due to ongoing financial and political instability. As the body of Christ we are called to support one another. Will you join us as we help them by providing food parcels to 500 needy families in the diocese of Baalbek, Lebanon? To read about the project, or to make an offering visit:

CARING FOR YOUR PARISH PRIEST

Tip 2. Encourage Them. Being a Parish Priest is more than writing sermons and having coffee with people. It's doing funerals of toddlers; it's counselling adulterous couples; it's praying for a mother who was just diagnosed with breast cancer; it's working on cost-efficient building plans. Shepherding the people of God is hard work; it's a high calling for a reason. The Parish Priest never feels that they are good enough at their work and no matter how much work they do, there is always more to be done. It is refreshing when church members talk about the impact that their ministry is having on their lives and what they are learning and how the Lord is growing them. It encourages their heart greatly.
