PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading

Rom 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you. So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live. Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Sequence (As per PowerPoint slides)

Gospel Acclamation (When there is a musician the Halle, Halle will be sung)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Jesus said to his disciples 'If you love me you will keep my commandments. I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever. 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own; it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.'

Jn 14:15-16, 23-26

Communion Antiphon:

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.

Next Week's Readings (Year C): Prov 8:22-31; Rom 5:1-5; Jn 16:12-15

PENTECOST: THE BIRTHDAY OF THE CHURCH

At Pentecost, the seventh Sunday after Easter, 50 days after that glorious resurrection, the Spirit of the living God fell upon the disciples as promised, and they were empowered for a worldwide mission. And that breath of the Holy Spirit which transformed them, which demonstrated Pentecost's intent by signs and wonders on that day, continues to blow, advancing the Great Commission of Jesus Christ through successive generations until he comes again. Pentecost reminds us that what God starts, God completes. We are the means, but God is both the first mover and the glorious end himself. By his grace he saves us, by his promises he keeps us, and by his glorious power he shall raise us from the dead. This Pentecost, and every day, is a day to reorient our lives to the mission of God. (crosswalk.com)

THIS WEEKEND

We welcome Fr John Finlayson to the Parish, who has answered the invitation from the Bishop to celebrate this weekend's Masses while Fr Jaybee is in Lake Grace.

Lake Grace is now a lay-led Parish with a Priest visiting once a month. Please keep the people of Lake Grace in your prayers, that they remain strong in their faith and united in their community as they move forward. I have no doubt a strong and active community can weather any challenges faced; however, it does point to the importance of continuing to pray for vocations to the Priesthood, and to pray for the Priests doing God's work now.

The Anglicans put out a 'Caring for Your Parish Priest' booklet and the statistics are frightening. These statistics could easily cross over to our Catholic Priests. The document states, "Just like members in a family, priests can sometimes be taken for granted, overworked and under-appreciated. The result is compassion fatigue, decreased performance, stress leave and physical and mental illness." The resource provides creative and practical ways congregations can care for their parish priest This included ideas about how to: pray for them, encourage them, love them, support them, free them and celebrate them. (I'll try to slot the ideas mentioned, here and there over the coming weeks.)

FROM THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters
I have been asked by a number of people if the personal devotion of receiving Holy Communion on the tongue is permitted again in the Diocese. The reason for the question has been that State Covid restrictions have been lifted - though the situation is being monitored.

Unfortunately, the reality is that Covid remains rampant across the South West of the State. This is the same area as the Bunbury Diocese.

All recent Confirmations in parishes have been affected by candidates, prayer friends and others having to isolate at the last minute. It has not been safe even for me to go into schools. In one school 20% of students were away in isolation. Numerous families have had to isolate because a member brought Covid into the family.

In this situation, receiving Holy Communion in the way Jesus commanded at the Last Supper remains the only way permitted in the Bunbury Diocese. Parishioners are asked to respect the Lord's command, which is repeated for us all to hear during the Consecration in each Mass.

The reception of Holy Communion on the tongue remains banned for the present. As it was lifted not so long ago when the situation became safer, the same will happen again when pandemic conditions allow.

God bless, Bishop Gerard.

MARY, QUEEN OF PEACE

At the recent feast of the Visitation, the Pope prayed to Mary with these words, "Grant us the great gift of peace; quickly end the wars, which have been raging for decades now in various parts of the world, and which has now invaded even the continent of Europe. ... We are certain that with the weapons of prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and the gift of your grace, human hearts and the fortunes of the whole world can be changed." (We also have our part to play.)

BE BRAVE. MAKE CHANGE

In 2022, 23 years after the Bringing Them Home report and 12 years since the National Apology, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children are still 10.6 times more likely than non-Indigenous children to be removed from their families. The theme for National Reconciliation Week this year Be Brave Make Change was a challenge for all Australians to tackle the unfinished business of reconciliation so that we can Make Change for the benefit of all Australians. With your support Caritas Australia works in close partnership with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, and First Australian-led organisations, to support programs that focus on intergenerational healing, strengthening cultural identity and spirituality, livelihood opportunities, and advocacy.
