The Most Holy TRINITY

First Reading

Prov 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud: The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries - and the waters will not invade the shore—when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Second Reading

Rom 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation (When there is a musician the Halle, Halle will be sung)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

Communion Antiphon:

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives

LECTORS

Could the Lectors at each weekend Mass, please meet in the Sacristy 10 minutes prior to Mass beginning.

The wearing of masks inside the Church is no longer mandatory.

HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

Trinity Sunday was officially added to the church calendar by Pope John XXII. One of the best descriptions for the Trinity to be found is in the Athanasian Creed, part of which says: “This is what the Catholic faith teaches: we worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity. Neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the substance. For there is one person of the Father, another of the Son, another of the Holy Spirit. But the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit have one divinity, equal glory, and coeternal majesty. What the Father is, the Son is, and the Holy Spirit is.” (It goes on in greater detail making the full creed well worth reading)

Fr Andrew Hamilton, SJ on Australia Catholics writes, “Unless we know a little about the history behind the words we use to describe God as Trinity, it is easy to dismiss the belief as concerned with divine mathematics. It really celebrates something much deeper: the depth of God’s involvement with us in the salvation that Jesus brought us. It insists that when Jesus spoke to us, God speaks, when Jesus dies on the cross, God dies in him, that when Jesus rises and ascends to God he takes us with him and that when the Spirit works within our lives and Church, God works within us. The Feast of the Trinity says that our world is not God’s colony under colonial management but is God’s home. It is about the intimacy of God’s presence to us in our world and in the Church through Jesus.”

In GPBS eNews, they ask how we can tell where one identity leaves and one begins. They say, “We can’t. And we don’t have to. That’s the nature of mystery. God can’t be sliced up like a pie and served across the table piece by piece. We want to be scientific, or at least mathematical, about Trinity: How much of Jesus is God? (All of him) Then what’s the difference between God and Jesus? (Full humanity) How can Jesus be fully God and fully human? (Good question!) If Eucharist is Jesus, and we consume Eucharist, how much of us is Christ? (As much as we allow) This last question is the only one that’s no mystery at all. It’s an invitation awaiting our response.”

WEEKEND HAPPENINGS

At St. Joseph’s during the Saturday evening Mass, we have a few children making their enrolment for their First Eucharist. (They were unable to attend the enrolment with their classmates a few weeks ago.) This ceremony marks the beginning of a “journey of faith” for the children and their parents. It’s also a sign to the larger community that all of us have a role in the formation of anyone in the parish. At both churches, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Ministers of the Lectern will be recommissioned.

100 DAYS +

June 3 marked 100 days since the beginning of Russia’s invasion of Ukraine that has left thousands dead. The United Nations estimates that nearly 7 million people have fled Ukraine following Russia’s invasion, with many more displaced or stranded within Ukraine. The war is no longer front-page news but the suffering continues. Let us continue to pray for peace.

CLEANING ROSTER

The new cleaning roster for St Joseph’s has been finalised and emailed. There a few copies in each church for those without an email address. We thank you for this all important ministry. You may often fly under the radar, but the work you do is always appreciated.

TUESDAY GAL'S

The Tuesday Gals group meets, generally, on the second Tuesday of each month. Originally established as an offshoot of the CWL, the group has grown into a core group of about 15 ladies (often more, often less) who choose to come together to develop friendships and support one another. Activities range from, for example, movie nights, dinners, wine and cheese nights etc. We have for the past few years hosted the annual 'Ladies Sundowner' at the beginning of the year to assist the CWL fundraising efforts and each year we take on a project to support. The group is self driven and it's activities are decided upon by the group.

If you are interested in meeting with and joining in any of the groups activities you will be made most welcome. We are a happy bunch! Please contact Roz 0419197666 or Julie 0429976602 if you would like to hear about our upcoming events. There is never any pressure to attend!

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL REQUEST

The PPC are asking for all the groups and committees send through a report (to include what your group does, who are the members and a contact person and their number) which can be published in the bulletin over the coming months. (See the example above from the Tuesday Gals Group) Send to Tim Murphy (timpaulamurphy@gmail.com)

CARING FOR YOUR PARISH PRIEST

Tip 1. Parish Priests pray for the church, but who prays for them? Our Parish Priests are at the top of the hit list for Satan, our enemy. After all, they are entrusted with making decisions for the Church, teaching and preaching the Word of God, caring for the needs of our congregations, and working to bring salvation to the unsaved. They are the leadership of the church, and leaders are always the target in a battle. The Lord hears the prayers of people, and the Lord cares for the leaders of people; so remember to pray for your Parish Priest. Pray that God will bless them, their ministry, and your church. Pray for their emotional wellbeing, their physical strength, and their spiritual wellness. This is the most important thing you can do to help your parish. If you aren't already in the habit of doing this, now is a good time to start. (newcastleanglican.org.au)
