PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Nominations are being called for a position on next year's Parish Pastoral Council. The Council shares in the responsibility for the ongoing life and development of the faith community. You are each invited to recommend one member (of the Parish) for consideration. (Forms are in the foyer) Look within the various Parish ministries, small groups and those next to you on the pews for someone who can enthusiastically support, guide and move forward with our Parish vision. Or just maybe you would like to consider the position for yourself?

33rd SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Mal 3:19-20

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

Second Reading

2 Thess 3:7-12

You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow. We gave you a rule when we were with you; not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

Gospel Acclamation (When there is a musician the Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! will be sung)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lift up your heads and see;
your redemption is near at hand.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Lk 21:5-19

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, 'All these things you are staring at now - the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.' And they put to him this question: 'Master,' they said 'when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?'

'Take care not to be deceived,' he said 'because many will come using my name and saying, "I am he" and, "The time is near at hand." Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not so soon.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name - and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.'

Communion Antiphon:

To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

Bishop Gerard's CatholicCare Christmas Appeal - Next Weekend

"People helping People"

Next week the Annual CatholicCare Christmas Appeal will be held. This year the Appeal will be to support the work of Stella Maris (formally Apostleship of the Sea) in our Diocese. Appeal envelopes will be available at Mass from next week. Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Wadandi people of the Noongar nation as the traditional custodians of this land on which we gather. We recognise their continuing connection to the land and waters, and thank them for protecting this coastline and its ecosystems since time immemorial. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and extend that respect to all First Nations people who might be present today.

FOR YOUR SAKES CHRIST BECAME POOR

Pope Francis wrote that while we are celebrating this Sunday's Sixth World Day of the Poor, we should reflect on the summons of the Apostle to keep our gaze fixed on Jesus, who "though he was rich, yet for [our] sakes became poor, so that by his poverty [we] might become rich" (cf. 2 Cor 8:9). He reminds us that, "Solidarity is sharing the little we have with those who have nothing, so that no one will go without." "And as Christians, let us always make charity, faith and hope the basis of our lives and our actions." He ended the message with, "May this 2022 World Day of the Poor be for us a moment of grace. May it enable us to make a personal and communal examination of conscience and to ask ourselves whether the poverty of Jesus Christ is our faithful companion in life."

"Bury my body wherever you will, only one thing I ask, remember me at the altar of the Lord."

NOVEMBER MASSES

November is traditionally a month of remembrance of the dead where we pray for the holy souls, those who have gone before us in faith. All Masses celebrated throughout November will be with the intention of praying for the faithful departed. If you wish to include your loved ones in these collective November Masses offered for the deceased, please fill out the November Mass Envelopes which are available in the Church foyers.

PRIESTS DEVELOPMENT DAYS

The final set of PD days for our Diocesan Priests this year, will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.. Please keep all the Priests in your prayers.

MEN'S BREAKFAST

Come, eat and have a chat with other 'Holy Romans on Wednesday, 16 November, at 8.30am @ 'The Good Egg Café' on Albert Street.

MEDITATION

The group have cancelled the remaining sessions for the year and will restart sometime in 2023. Thank you for your understanding.

NOVEMBER INTENTION

Children Who Suffer

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

LECTORS

Could the Lectors at each weekend Mass, please meet in the Sacristy 10 minutes prior to Mass beginning.

WHEN ENTERING THE CHURCH

Please Turn off Your Mobile Phones

I ask those receiving Holy Communion on the tongue to approach the priest or minister last out of loving consideration for others who will still be nervous about receiving Communion in the normal way after them. Bishop Gerard Holohan 06.11.22

CRAFT GROUP - THIS WEEK

The craft group would welcome your donations of hand made items for our Parish Christmas Stall to be held on December 11. Why not pop into craft group and either drop off your items or spend some time with like minded ladies while you continue creating? We are especially setting aside Tuesday November 15 for Christmas stall preparations. Craft group meets Tuesdays 1 - 4pm in the Ned Kenny Centre. Contact Fran 0428 220 822 or Julie 0429976602.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

Many thanks to the parishioners who so generously support the St Vincent de Paul conference with the provision of food and cash donations. We have had a much increased call for food over the past few weeks and last weekend when I made mention of this, many parishioners gave me cash donations on the spot. Your generosity has no bounds. Thank you very, very much!! Keep it up! Our Christmas appeal will commence shortly. (Maria Parkinson, President SVdP Busselton)

JOSEPHITE COMPANIONS

PRE KINDY 2023 AND KINDY 2024 – HAVE YOU ENROLLED YOUR CHILD?

St Mary MacKillop College will conduct interviews for Kindy 2024 starting April 2023. Interviews will be conducted as per Catholic Education guidelines, starting with Catholic children, siblings of current St Mary MacKillop College students and then children of past students of the College, followed by all other children. If you have not yet applied for enrolment:

- Download and complete an application form online from the College website (www.mackillop.wa.edu.au/entry-to-mackillop/choose-mackillop)
- Follow the checklist on page 1 of the application for documents required.
- Submit your application to Natalie Gordon, Enrolments Officer at St Mary MacKillop College, as soon as possible.

ROLL UP YOUR SLEEVES: MAKE A DIFFERENCE OVERSEAS

Do you require professional renewal, or are you seeking a retirement challenge? Communities abroad are asking for qualified and experienced Australians able to mentor their people in education, health, administration, trades, agriculture and more. Imagine yourself re-engaging your vocational passion in Africa, Asia or the Pacific. Since 1961 Palms Australia has been recruiting Australians able to offer mentoring that will allow overseas counterparts opportunities otherwise unattainable. Sharing your skills will strengthen the capacity of workers overseas to serve their communities for generations to come, long after you return home. Communities in American Samoa, Cambodia, Kiribati, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tanzania, Thailand, Timor-Leste, and Zambia are seeking to fill a variety of roles. Enquire about those roles via www.palms.org.au or by calling 02 9560 533 or 0422 472 567.

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

For over 50 years, Aid to the Church in Need has passed on the Mass offerings of the Catholic people to poor priests, who have no other material support. Masses can be offered for those we knew and loved, or for the souls that have nobody to pray for them. Mass cards can also be arranged for the families of the deceased, bringing them hope and support in their grief. Slips for arranging a Mass offering through Aid to the Church in Need can be found in the foyer. One hundred percent of every Mass offering is sent directly to the priest in need, no administration costs are taken.
