PENTECOST SUNDAY (8 JUNE)

First Reading

Acts 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm:

Lord send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading

Rom 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you. So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live. Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 14:15-16, 23-26

Jesus said to his disciples

'If you love me you will keep my commandments. I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever. 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own; it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.'

REFLECTION

Pentecost completes our celebration of Easter. Today, we remember each moment in which we have felt the influence of God's Spirit. Before you say that it's beyond you, the very fact that you are reading the Scriptures and reflecting on them demonstrates that the Spirit is leading you toward something deeper than you yet know. Today's feast reminds us that God not only chose to dwell among us, but to dwell in us. That mutual indwelling grows for a lifetime. It fulfills every human life.

(Sr Mary McGlone NCR)

The word "apostle" means "one who is sent." In that sense, we are all baptised into the mission of being apostles. Our reception of the Spirit is the same commissioning the disciples received in the upper room. So what are we waiting for? Maybe we are afraid, like the early disciples who huddled in that room. Maybe we are sceptical, like Thomas. Maybe we are waiting for an appearance, a sign, further instructions, a personal invitation. Well, here it is! This is Pentecost, the feast day of being church. This day marks the beginning of the partnership between humanity and the indwelling Spirit. Ask God to awaken within you the power of the Spirit and to release the gifts that are uniquely yours. Make this prayer with as much passion as you dare. And stand back – such prayers are answered with more fire than you may intend.

Questions for Reflection

- In which relationships do you find communication most difficult? Have you ever called upon the Holy Spirit for guidance in speech?
- Where is the call of the Spirit to unity being most urgently felt in your community?
- Read Galatians 5: 22 - 23. Which of the fruits of the Spirit are present within you? Which are you in most need of receiving?

MEN'S BREAKFAST

Come, eat and have a chat with other 'Holy Romans' on Thursday, 12 June, at 8.30am @ 'The Good Egg Café on Albert Street.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Our meeting takes place in the Ned Kenny Centre this Friday, (13 June) after the 12 noon Mass. Soup is on the menu and they have quite an interesting speaker booked for 1pm. Annetta is from Consumer Protection and will speak on all kinds of scams. If any other parishioners wish to come you are more than welcome.

IF YOU LOVE ME YOU WILL KEEP MY COMMANDMENTS

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength. ' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself. ' There is no other commandment greater than these." In the Bible, a neighbour is understood as anyone, regardless of their background or relationship to you, who you have the opportunity to help. The key is to love and care for others in need, just as you would love and care for yourself. One way we can show this love and care for our neighbour is by contributing food items to St Vincent de Paul (baskets are in both churches) and/or the Community Food Pantry (unpowered fridge between the office and garage) for those doing it tough.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Wadandi people of the Noongar nation as the traditional custodians of this land on which we gather. We recognise their continuing connection to the land protecting this coastline and its ecosystems since time immemorial. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and extend that respect to all First Nations people who might be present today.

NEW TO THE PARISH?

Please introduce yourself to Father and our greeters. They will be able to give you our Parish Membership Form, and 'Welcome Booklet' which will help you to know what is happening in and around the Parish. Please feel free to drop into the Parish Office on Kent Street (next to St Joseph's Church) when next you pass by. Trish, the secretary, would love to meet you.

JUNE INTENTION

That the world might grow in compassion:

Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

GENTLE REMINDER

Please turn off your mobile phone.

NEW PA SYSTEM OLB

The new PA SYSTEM in Our Lady of the Bay Church has been fully installed, is working well and is easy to operate. We thank Tony Wheeler from the Finance Committee for facilitating it. We also thank a very generous Parishioner who donated half of the cost and wants to remain anonymous. We thank Mark Gelmi the installer. Our task now is to familiarise ourselves with the system. There will be a short work shop taking place in the near future.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Are commissioned to serve the community by distributing Holy Communion not only during the Eucharistic celebration but also to the elderly and the sick who are unable to attend Mass, whether at home, in nursing homes, or in hospitals. There is now a black hard covered notebook with red edges in each Sacristy, and we request that all EMHC's fill in the required details each time Communion is taken to a parishioner unable to attend Mass. Thank you for your ministry. We are blessed to have you nourishing the faithful and touching the hearts of those you minister to.

A PARISH CATECHIST

RSVP Sr Pauline at pauline.dundon@sosj.org.au or 9721 0500. If you might be interested in helping out in this role within the Parish, please talk to Fr Jess.

JUBILEE 2025: PIGRIMS OF HOPE

The 2025 Jubilee Year is a special time for Catholics to deepen their faith and receive grace through the opportunity to gain plenary indulgences.

PLENARY INDULGENCE:

A plenary indulgence grants a complete forgiveness of the temporal punishment due for sins, through various acts of piety and charity. It can be obtained by participating in specific practices like pilgrimages, acts of charity and fulfilling certain conditions such as Confession, Holy Communion, and prayer for the Pope's intentions.

OUR PARISH JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS:

St Joseph's Church is one of the Pilgrim Churches in our Diocese. As you enter the main door, a Jubilee Prayer Card is available for you, recite the prayer and take it with you. You can use the prayer whenever you visit other pilgrim churches. We added extra times for confessions this year on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. Please check the Parish bulletin. Likewise to perform works of mercy or acts of charity is to compliment our JUBILEE through both spiritual and corporal observances.
