GROWING IN FAITH, INCLUSIVITY & OUTREACH, THROUGH OPENNESS.

The HOLY FAMILY of Jesus, Mary and Joseph (28 December)

First Reading

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

The Lord honours the father in his children, and upholds the rights of a mother over her sons. Whoever respects his father is atoning for his sins, he who honours his mother is like someone amassing a fortune. Whoever respects his father will be happy; with children of his own, he shall be heard on the day when he prays. Long life comes to him who honours his father, he who sets his mother at ease is showing obedience to the Lord. My son, support your father in his old age, do not grieve him during his life. Even if his mind should fail, show him sympathy, do not despise him in your health and strength; for kindness to a father shall not be forgotten but will serve as reparation for your sins.

Responsorial Psalm:

Happy are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Second Reading

Col 3:12-21

You are God's chosen race, his saints; he loves you and you should be clothed in sincere compassion, in kindness and humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with one another; forgive each other as soon as a quarrel begins. The Lord has forgiven you; now you must do the same. Over all these clothes, to keep them together and complete them, put on love. And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, because it is for this that you were called together as parts of one body. Always be thankful. Let the message of Christ, in all its richness, find a home with you. Teach each other, and advise each other, in all wisdom. With gratitude in your hearts sing psalms and hymns and inspired songs to God; and never say or do anything except in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. Wives, give way to your husbands, as you should in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives and treat them with gentleness. Children, be obedient to your parents always, because that is what will please the Lord. Parents, never drive your children to resentment or you will make them feel frustrated.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mt 2:13-15, 19-23

After the wise men had left, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother with you, and escape into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, because Herod intends to search for the child and do away with him.' So Joseph got up and, taking the child and his mother with him, left that night for Egypt, where he stayed until Herod was dead. This was to fulfil what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:

I called my son out of Egypt.

After Herod's death, the angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother with you and go back to the land of Israel, for those who wanted to kill the child are dead'. So Joseph got up and, taking the child and his mother with him, went back to the land of Israel. But when he learnt that Archelaus had succeeded his father Herod as ruler of Judaea he was afraid to go there, and being warned in a dream he left for the region of Galilee. There he settled in a town called Nazareth. In this way the words spoken through the prophets were to be fulfilled:

He will be called a Nazarene.

May the Lord crown your New Year
with His goodness,
guide your steps in His truth,
and fill your heart with unshakable peace.
May His light shine upon your path,
and His grace carry you
through every season ahead.
Wishing you a blessed and Christ-centred New Year!

REFLECTION

The Feast of the Holy Family Year A reminds us that Jesus lived in a real family. He had a mother and a father who cared for Him and protected Him. Mary and Joseph did not have easy lives, but they trusted God and followed His plan. Their home was simple, but it was full of love.

This feast helps us think about our own families. Every home has struggles. But like the Holy Family, we are called to listen to God and care for each other with patience. Love grows in quiet moments, hard choices, and daily kindness.

The readings for the Feast of the Holy Family Year A show how God works through family life. They speak about honouring parents, caring for others, and choosing peace. These small acts shape a strong and faithful home.

(Young Catholics)

What makes the Holy Family holy? Not simply the fact that Mary and Joseph are the parents of Jesus, the incarnate Son of God. Mary, Joseph and Jesus are holy because each of them lived a life of loving obedience to God without compromise. As Jesus says of his mother: she is the one who heard the word of God and obeyed it. And, numerous times in the Gospel, Joseph hears the command of the Angel of God and obeys. Jesus, too, affirms that he came to do the will of his Father. St Therese of Lisieux says: Holiness consists in doing God's will and being what God wants us to be.

Being holy, however, is no protection against the difficulties and sufferings of life. In the Gospel, we hear of the hardships that the Holy Family endured, having to escape multiple times from those who wished to do them harm. The family unit is under threat today with the rise of selfish individualism and aggressive assertiveness. St Paul exhorts us to live lives of holiness by being compassionate, kind, humble, patient, gentle and forgiving. In this way we will live in peace within our families and God will reign in our hearts and homes.

A STORY FROM GATEWAY.COM

In 2003, a man named Narayanan Krishnan, a chef from India, was on his way to work when he saw a homeless man eating from a trash can. This sight moved Narayanan to tears, and he decided to quit his job and start a nonprofit organisation, "Akshaya Trust," to feed the hungry and homeless. Narayanan began by cooking and serving meals to just 30 people, but soon his organisation grew to serve over 1.5 million meals to those in need. He and his team also provide shelter, clothing, and medical care to the homeless and marginalised. Narayanan's work has inspired many, and he has received numerous awards for his selfless service. His story shows that even one person's compassion and determination can make a significant difference in the lives of many.

Each of us can make a difference too. By contributing non-perishable food items for St Vincent de Paul or the Parish Food Pantry we are able to help those in need. Your gift of a cash donation to SVDP help people in our town keep the lights on, stay on top of their rent, and the car running. Envelopes for cash donations can be found in the foyer of the church.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Wadandi people of the Noongar nation as the traditional custodians of this land on which we gather. We recognise their continuing connection to the land protecting this coastline and its ecosystems since time immemorial. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and extend that respect to all First Nations people who might be present today.

NEW TO THE PARISH?

Please introduce yourself to Father and our greeters. They will be able to give you our Parish Membership Form, and 'Welcome Booklet' which will help you to know what is happening in and around the Parish. Please feel free to drop into the Parish Office on Kent Street (next to St Joseph's Church) when next you pass by. Trish, the secretary, would love to meet you.

DECEMBER INTENTION

For Christians in areas of conflict:

Let us pray Christians living in areas of war or conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation and hope.

GENTLE REMINDER

Please turn off your mobile phone.

You have the right to remain silent .....

PARISH SECRETARY

This part-time position will become vacant at the end of January. If you are interested please contact Trish in the Parish Office for further details.

(If you love God and love your Parish, this is the ideal job for you!)

WALKING WITH JESUS INTO THE NEW YEAR

As the New Year approaches, it's a perfect time for Christians to reflect on the past year. Consider the ways God has been faithful and how you have grown in your faith. This reflection can help you appreciate the blessings and lessons learned, setting a positive tone for the year ahead. Instead of traditional New Year's resolutions focussed solely on personal improvement, consider setting spiritual goals that align with our faith.

Daily Prayer: Commit to spending time in prayer each day, seeking guidance and strength from God.

Bible Study: Set a goal to read through the Bible or specific books of the Bible, deepening your understanding of God's Word.

Community Involvement: Engage more with your church community through volunteering, attending services, or joining a small group for fellowship and support. (wolm.org)

FOR A SYNODAL CHURCH: COMMUNION, PARTICIPATION, MISSIONSnippet from the Final Document: Part I - The Heart of Synodality

60. By virtue of Baptism, women and men have equal dignity as members of the People of God. However, women continue to encounter obstacles in obtaining a fuller recognition of their charisms, vocation and place in all the various areas of the Church's life. This is to the detriment of serving the Church's shared mission. Scripture attests to the prominent role of many women in the history of salvation. One woman, Mary Magdalene, was entrusted with the first proclamation of the Resurrection. On the day of Pentecost, Mary, the Mother of God, was present, accompanied by many other women who had followed the Lord. It is important that the Scripture passages that relate these stories find adequate space inside liturgical lectionaries. Crucial turning points in Church history confirm the essential contribution of women moved by the Spirit. Women make up the majority of churchgoers and are often the first witnesses to the faith in families. They are active in the life of small Christian communities and parishes. They run schools, hospitals and shelters. They lead initiatives for reconciliation and promoting human dignity and social justice. Women contribute to theological research and are present in positions of responsibility in Church institutions, in diocesan curia and the Roman Curia. There are women who hold positions of authority and are leaders of their communities. This Assembly asks for full implementation of all the opportunities already provided for in Canon Law with regard to the role of women, particularly in those places where they remain underutilised. There is no reason or impediment that should prevent women from carrying out leadership roles in the Church: what comes from the Holy Spirit cannot be stopped. Additionally, the question of women's access to diaconal ministry remains open. This discernment needs to continue. The Assembly also asks that more attention be given to the language and images used in preaching, teaching, catechesis, and the drafting of official Church documents, giving more space to the contributions of female saints, theologians and mystics.

SPIRITUALITY HUB - KIRUP

Our first event for 2026 is Celebrating the Feast Day of Blessed Pauline Jaricot, foundress of what we now know as Catholic Mission in Australia. We will reflect on this year's diocesan theme "Connected in Christ, walking together as one", celebrate Eucharist, and share a light lunch (provided). Further info Deborah 0419939864 and on flyer. The initial schedule for Kirup in 2026 can also be found in the foyer.
